Dear Ms. Wolf,

The W.K. Kellogg Foundation is pleased to inform you that it has been approved a grant to Sanut, A.C. civil organization for US $300,000 to improve the health of children and their families in Calakmul, Campeche, Mexico, through the production and implementation of rain water cisterns to capture drinking water and through training of safe water handling. This amount represents match-funding regarding Monyati Initiatives donation, that will allow fully implement the activities and installation of the cisterns.

For the Kellogg Foundation it is a great pleasure to partner with Monyati Initiatives in benefit of the most vulnerable families in Mexico.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you require additional information.
